Objections to such affidavits must be made within fourteen (14) days after the service of the disclosure. (See Fed. R. Evid. 803(6), 902(11), or 902(12) and Local Civil Rule 16.02(D)(3)).
8. Discovery shall be completed no later than April 21, 2023. Discovery shall be deemed completed within this time only if discovery is initiated at such time as to afford the responding party the full time provided under the applicable rule of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in which to respond prior to the discovery completion date noted in this paragraph.

(The parties may, with the consent of all counsel, conduct discovery up to the time of trial, provided the deadlines in this order are not affected and at their own risk.)

11. This case is subject to being called for jury selection and/or trial the later of sixty (60) days after dispositive motions have been resolved or on or after July 17, 2023. Once a specific jury selection and trial date are scheduled, a NOTICE will be issued at that time. The Notice will set forth deadlines for the Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) pretrial disclosures and objections, Motions in Limine, Pretrial Briefs and marking of exhibits.

A request for a continuance of the trial date must be agreed to and signed by the party and his attorney requesting and/or consenting to the continuance.

The court directs the parties' attention to Local Rule 7.00 which governs motion practice. Hearings on motions are not automatic. The court may decide motions without a hearing. If a party opposes a motion which has been filed, that party must file a response to the opposed motion within fourteen (14) days of the date the motion was filed. If no such response in opposition is filed, the court will assume that the party consents to the court's granting the motion.

Any motions pending on the date of the Bar Meeting will be heard at the Bar Meeting and you should be prepared to argue them at that time.

NOTICE: You are expected to be available for trial of this case during the month of July 2023 unless the court notifies you of a later date. If you presently have a conflict during the month of July 2023, notify the court in writing within seven (7) days of the date of this order. You will not be excused without leave of court.
